

Free Tuition

— AND —

Scholarships

The University of Wyoming, Univ.

LARAMIE

FREE TUITION

to students in all departments (except for individual instruction in Music)

SCHOLARSHIPS

covering exemption from general official fees are offered to one boy and one girl of highest standing in each four years
high school graduating class

SCHOLARSHIP AIDS

of substantial money value are available. Awards are made upon the basis of merit and individual need

WRITE FOR FULL INFORMATION TO PRESIDENT C. A. DUNIWAY
LARAMIE, WYOMING

Colleges and Departments

University of Wyoming

The College of Liberal Arts
The College of Agriculture
The Agricultural Experiment Station
The College of Engineering
The College of Education
 (1) State Normal School
 (2) Department of Secondary Education
 (3) Department of Rural Education
The Department of Commerce
The Department of Home Economics
The Department of Music
The University High School
The Department of University Extension
The Extension Division in Agriculture and Home Economics
The Winter Course in Agriculture and Home Economics
The Summer School

Summer School, 1916

June 12 to July 21

First Semester, 1916

September 12 120658

Students from every county in Wyoming and from many other states

CORRESPONDENCE STUDY

Hebard
LD
6267
.4535
1916

Instruction offered in twenty departments.

College credits or admission units may be earned.

Free tuition—fees $3.00 to $5.00 per half year.

Write for descriptive bulletin.

WINTER COURSE

IN AGRICULTURE

AND HOME ECONOMICS

Practical courses for those not wishing regular collegiate training.

High school graduation not required for admission.

Registration Day, November 6, 1916. Term ends March 23, 1917.

Special circular sent on request.